Caffé Buongiorno O'Halloran Hill

News Update

Tony and Lennie would like to take this opportunity to thank all the staff and volunteers that made Christmas day possible.

For those of you that don't know Caffé Buongiorno O'Halloran Hill together with Southside Christian Church provided a Christmas breakfast for those less fortunate. The turn out was great and everybody from children to grandparents enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Breakfast was served which included bacon, eggs, sausages, hash browns, toast, mushrooms and stuffed tomatoes, this was followed with fresh fruit, yoghurt, berry juices, milkshakes, coffee and tea.

At about 10.00am Santa arrived in a red Cadillac to a roaring cheer of excited children, each child was presented with a gift from Santa, and the joy was noticeable on their faces.

We didn't forget the mums and dads they were treated with pamper packs and a food hamper.

We are pleased that the morning turned out well despite the weather and we are looking forward to next year's event.

Once again we thank all the sponsors and volunteers for their valued support.

Special thanks to Steve and Gerry Johnson from Imagine If Educational toys and Hobbies for their generosity
